

APPLICABLE FINAL TERMS

The Notes cannot be early redeemed by the Issuer for taxation reasons. All payments under the Notes shall be effected by the Issuer after deductions or withholdings for any taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges in respect of such Notes as the case may be. In such case, the Issuer will withhold or deduct such taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges from the due and payable amount and pay the deducted or withheld amounts to the competent tax authorities. As a result, the amounts that the Noteholder will effectively receive under the Notes may be substantially less than the due and payable amounts. The Issuer shall not be obliged to pay any additional amounts to the Noteholder for any such deductions or withholdings.

- Subject to certain exceptions, Section 4701 of the US Internal Revenue Code imposes an excise tax on non-US issuers of bearer obligations. The amount of the excise tax is one percent of the principal amount of the obligation, multiplied by the number of calendar years until the obligation reaches maturity. Notes issued on or before 18 March 2012 in accordance with the TEFRA C Rules or TEFRA D rules are exempt from the excise tax. The Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment Act of 2010 (the HIRE Act) repealed the TEFRA C rules and TEFRA D rules for Notes issued after 18 March 2012. Based on Notice 2012-20, the US Department of Treasury and the US Internal Revenue Service intend to provide in regulations that rules identical to the TEFRA C rules and TEFRA D rules will apply for purposes of establishing an exemption from the excise tax. Consequently, Bearer Notes issued after 18 March 2012 in accordance with the TEFRA C rules or TEFRA D rules should continue to be treated as “foreign targeted obligations” that are exempt from the excise tax.
