B.3	What are the key risks that are specific to the Issuer?
Risk Relating to the Issuer and Guarantor MSFL has no independent operations beyond the issuance and administration of its securities and is expected to have no independent assets available for distributions to holders of MSFL Notes if they make claims in respect of the Notes in a bankruptcy, resolution or similar proceeding. Accordingly, any recoveries by such holders will be limited to those available under the related Guarantee by Morgan Stanley and that Guarantee will rank pari passu with all other outstanding unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of Morgan Stanley present and future, but, in the event of insolvency, only to the extent permitted by laws affecting creditors’ rights. Holders will have recourse only to a single claim against Morgan Stanley and its assets under the Guarantee. Holders of Notes issued by MSFL should accordingly assume that in any such proceedings they would not have any priority over and should be treated pari passu with the claims of other unsecured, unsubordinated creditors of Morgan Stanley, including holders of Morgan Stanley-issued securities. The following key risks affect Morgan Stanley and, since Morgan Stanley is the ultimate holding company of MSFL, also impact MSFL: Risks relating to the financial situation of Morgan Stanley Morgan Stanley’s results of operations may be materially affected by market fluctuations and by global and economic conditions and other factors, including changes in asset values. Holding large and concentrated positions may expose Morgan Stanley to losses. These factors may result in losses for a position or portfolio owned by Morgan Stanley. Morgan Stanley is exposed to the risk that third parties that are indebted to it will not perform their obligations, as well as that a default by a large financial institution could adversely affect financial markets. Such factors give rise to the risk of loss arising when a borrower, counterparty or issuer does not meet its financial obligations to Morgan Stanley. Liquidity is essential to Morgan Stanley’s businesses and Morgan Stanley relies on external sources to finance a significant portion of its operations. Morgan Stanley’s borrowing costs and access to the debt capital markets depend on its credit ratings. Morgan Stanley is a holding company, has no operations and depends on dividends, distributions and other payments from its subsidiaries. Further, Morgan Stanley’s liquidity and financial condition have in the past been, and in the future could be, adversely affected by U.S. and international markets and economic conditions. As a result of the foregoing, there is a risk that Morgan Stanley will be unable to finance its operations due to a loss of access to the capital markets or difficulty in liquidating its assets. Risks relating to the operation of Morgan Stanley's business activities Morgan Stanley is subject to operational risks, including a failure, breach or other disruption of its operations or security systems or those of Morgan Stanley's third parties (or third parties thereof), as well as human error or malfeasance, which could adversely affect its businesses or reputation. A cyber-attack, information or security breach or a technology failure of Morgan Stanley or a third party could adversely affect Morgan Stanley's ability to conduct its business, manage its exposure to risk or result in disclosure or misuse of confidential or proprietary information and otherwise adversely impact its results of operations, liquidity and financial condition, as well as cause reputational harm. Morgan Stanley's risk management strategies, models and processes may not be fully effective in mitigating its risk exposures in all market environments or against all types of risk, which could result in unexpected losses. Further, replacement of London Interbank Offered Rate and replacement or reform of other interest rate benchmarks could adversely affect Morgan Stanley's business, financial condition and results of operations. Legal, Regulatory and Compliance Risk Morgan Stanley is subject to the risk of legal or regulatory sanctions, material financial loss including fines, penalties, judgments, damages and/or settlements, or loss to reputation it may suffer as a result of its failure to comply with laws, regulations, rules, related self-regulatory organization standards and codes of conduct applicable to its business activities. Morgan Stanley is also subject to contractual and commercial risk, such as the risk that a counterparty's performance obligations will be unenforceable. Additionally, Morgan Stanley is subject to anti-money laundering, anti-corruption and terrorist financing rules and regulations. Other risks relating to Morgan Stanley's business activities Morgan Stanley faces strong competition from other financial services firms, which could lead to pricing pressures that could materially adversely affect its revenue and profitability. Further, automated trading markets may adversely affect Morgan Stanley's business and may increase competition. Morgan Stanley is subject to numerous political, economic, legal, tax, operational, franchise and other risks as a result of its international operations (including risks of possible nationalization, expropriation, price controls, capital controls, exchange controls, increased taxes and levies and other restrictive governmental actions, as well as the outbreak of hostilities or political and governmental instability) which could adversely impact its businesses in many ways. Morgan Stanley may be unable to fully capture the expected value from acquisitions, divestitures, joint ventures, minority stakes or strategic alliances, and certain acquisitions may subject our business to new or increased risk. The application of regulatory requirements and strategies in the United States or other jurisdictions to facilitate the orderly resolution of large financial institutions may pose a greater risk of loss for Morgan Stanley's security holders and subject Morgan Stanley to other restrictions.

C. KEY INFORMATION ON THE NOTES
C.1	What are the main features of the Notes?
C.1.1	Type, class and ISIN
The Notes are issued in registered form ("Registered Notes") in global certificate form. The ISIN Code of the Notes is XS3088245355. The Notes are not Notes in respect of which physical settlement may apply or may be elected to apply ("Cash Settlement Notes"). The Notes are Fixed Coupon Notes.
C.1.2	Currency, denomination, par value, number of Notes issued and duration
The specified currency of the Notes is Japanese Yen ("JPY"). The specified denomination of the Notes is JPY 200,000. The aggregate nominal amount of this Tranche of Notes is JPY 500,000,000 and the issue price per Note is 100 per cent. of par. The Notes issued on 24 July 2025. The Notes are scheduled to mature on 24 July 2050. The Notes may redeem earlier if an early redemption event occurs or if the output of a Morgan Stanley proprietary valuation model indicates, on a Model-based Redemption Determination Date (Call), that redeeming the Notes at the relevant Model-based Redemption Date (Call) is economically more rational for the Issuer than not so redeeming the Notes.

C.1.3	Rights attached to the Notes
Interest: The Notes are Fixed Coupon Notes and bear interest. Redemption: Subject to early redemption, the Notes will redeem at par. Repayment Procedure: Payments of principal on the Notes shall be made by cheque drawn in the currency in which the payment is due, or upon application by a noteholder in advance of such payment, by transfer to an account of the noteholder held in the principal financial centre for the relevant currency. While in global form, payments in respect of the Notes shall be made against the presentation and surrender of the global note certificate at the specified office of or to the order of a paying agent. Events of Default: If an Event of Default occurs, the Notes may be redeemed prior to their Maturity Date at the Early Redemption Amount if the Noteholders of not less than 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Notes give written notice to the Issuer declaring the Notes to be immediately due and payable. The Events of Default applicable to the Notes are as follows: (1) non-payment of principal (within 30 days of the due date) in respect of the Notes; and (2) the Issuer becomes insolvent or is unable to pay its debts as they fall due, or an administrator or liquidator is appointed in respect of the Issuer or the whole or a substantial part of its undertaking, assets and revenues (otherwise than for the purposes of or pursuant to an amalgamation, reorganisation or restructuring whilst solvent), or the Issuer takes any action for a composition with or for the benefit of its creditors generally, or an order is made or an effective resolution is passed for the winding up, liquidation or dissolution of the Issuer (otherwise than for the purposes of or pursuant to an amalgamation, reorganisation or restructuring whilst solvent) and such order or effective resolution has remained in force and has not been rescinded, revoked or set aside for 60 days after the date on which such order is made or effective resolution is passed. Early Redemption Amount: The Notes are Fixed Coupon Notes and the Early Redemption Amount payable in respect of each Note upon an Event of Default shall be an amount equal to the product of (a) the Calculation Amount of such Note and (b) the Specified Rate, where the Calculation Amount is JPY 200,000 and the Specified Rate is 100%. Model-based Redemption: If the output of a Morgan Stanley proprietary valuation model indicates, on a Model-based Redemption Determination Date (Call), that redeeming the Notes at the relevant Model-based Redemption Date (Call) is economically more rational for the Issuer than not so redeeming the Notes, the Issuer shall redeem the Notes in whole on such Model-based Redemption Date (Call) at the relevant Model-based Redemption Amount (Call). Governing Law: The Notes will be governed by English law. Limitations to the rights: Prescription. Claims for principal and interest on redemption in respect of the Notes shall become void unless the relevant note certificates are surrendered for payment within 10 years of the due date for payment.
C.1.4	Rank of the Notes in the Issuer's capital structure upon insolvency
The Notes constitute direct and general obligations of the Issuer ranking pari passu among themselves.
C.1.5	Restrictions on free transferability of the Notes
Interests in the Notes will be transferred in accordance with the procedures and regulations of the relevant clearing system, subject to restrictions on sale of the Notes into certain jurisdictions. The Notes cannot be offered or sold in the U.S. or to U.S. persons, nor held in the U.S. or by U.S. Persons at any time. The Notes may not be acquired or held by, or acquired with the assets of, any employee benefit plan subject to Title I of the United States Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), any individual retirement account or plan subject to Section 4975 of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or any entity whose underlying assets include "plan assets" within the meaning of Section 3(42) of ERISA by reason of any such employee benefit plan's account's or plan's investment therein.
C.2	Where will the Notes be traded?
Application is expected to be made by the Issuer (or on its behalf) for the Notes to be admitted to trading on the regulated market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange
C.3	Is there a guarantee attached to the Notes?
C.3.1	Nature and scope of the Guarantee

The payment obligations of MSFL in respect of the Notes are unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed by Morgan Stanley (the “Guarantor” or “Morgan Stanley”) pursuant to a guarantee dated as of 11 July 2025 (the “Guarantee”) which is governed by New York law. The Guarantor’s obligations under the Guarantee constitute direct, general and unsecured obligations of the Guarantor which rank without preference among themselves and pari passu with all other outstanding, unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Guarantor, present and future, but in the event of insolvency only to the extent permitted by laws affecting creditors’ rights.

C.3.2 Brief description of the Guarantor

Morgan Stanley is incorporated and has its registered address in the U.S.A. Its legal entity identifier is IGJSJL3JD5P30I6NJZ34. The Issuer is a financial holding company and is regulated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended.

C.3.3 Key financial information of the Guarantor

C.3.4 Most material risk factors pertaining to the Guarantor

The most material risk factors pertaining to Morgan Stanley are listed under section B.3 “What are the key risks that are specific to the Issuer?” above.

C.3/4 What are the key risks that are specific to the Notes?

- Secondary trading of the Notes may be limited. Further, if the Notes are traded via one or more electronic trading systems and these systems become partially or completely unavailable, this would affect the investor’s ability to trade the Notes.
 - Payments on a Note issued by Morgan Stanley or MSFL may be subject to U.S. withholding tax of 30 per cent. if the beneficial owner of the Note does not meet the criteria for being exempt from this withholding tax, including the requirement that the beneficial owner (and any financial institution holding the Note on behalf of the beneficial owner) complies with certain U.S. tax identification and certification requirements. If withholding is so required, none of the Issuers, the Guarantor or any intermediary will be required to pay any additional amounts with respect to the amounts so withheld.
- U.S. federal tax rules commonly referred to as “FATCA” may impose a withholding tax of 30 per cent. on payments made on the Notes (including payments made by financial intermediaries), unless various U.S. information reporting and due diligence requirements have been satisfied. If withholding is so required, none of the Issuers, the Guarantor or any intermediary will be required to pay any additional amounts with respect to the amounts so withheld. U.S. federal tax law may impose a withholding tax of up to 30 per cent. on payments or deemed payments made to non-U.S. persons that are contingent upon or determined directly or indirectly by reference to U.S.-source dividends. If withholding is so required, none of the Issuers, the Guarantor or any intermediary will be required to pay any additional amounts with respect to the amounts so withheld. Notes may be redeemed early if the Issuer or Guarantor is obliged to increase the amounts payable in respect of any Notes due to any withholding or deduction for or on account of, any taxes or such levies. • Not a time deposit: The Note is NOT equivalent to, nor should it be treated as a substitute for, time deposit. It is NOT a protected deposit and is NOT protected by the Deposit Protection Scheme in Hong Kong. • Adjustments by the Determination Agent: The terms and conditions of the Notes will allow the Determination Agent to make adjustments or take any other appropriate action if circumstances occur where the Notes or any exchanges are affected by market disruption, adjustment events or circumstances affecting normal activities. In such circumstances, the Determination Agent can determine whether to redeem the Notes early, or adjust the terms of the Notes. Potential investors should see the Base Prospectus for a detailed description of potential adjustment events and adjustments. • Credit Risk: The holder of the Notes will be exposed to the credit risk of the Issuer and the Guarantor. The Notes are essentially a loan to the Issuer that the Issuer and the Guarantor promise to pay to you at maturity. There is the risk, however, that the Issuer and the Guarantor may not be able to fulfil its promise to the holder of the Note. If any companies in the Morgan Stanley group incur losses with respect to any of their activities, this may have a negative impact on the financial condition of the Issuer and the Guarantor. The holder of the Note may lose all or part of its investment if the Issuer and the Guarantor are unable to pay the redemption amount and/or go into liquidation. No assets of the Issuer are segregated and specifically set aside in order to pay the holders of the Notes in the event of liquidation of the Issuer or the Guarantor, and the holders of the Notes will rank behind creditors who have priority rights over certain assets of the Issuer of the Guarantor. • Market Risk: The Notes are denominated, and all payments will be made, in JPY. There are risks inherent in investments in notes denominated and payable in JPY for investors whose home and/or functional currency is not JPY. Noteholders should consult their financial, legal and tax advisers as to any specific risks entailed by an investment in notes that are denominated and payable in a currency other than the currency of the country in which they are resident or in which they conduct their businesses. • Exit Risk: The secondary market price of the Note will depend on numerous factors including interest rates, interest rate volatility, perceptions of issuer's credit quality and time remaining to maturity. Depending on the actual or anticipated level of any of the above, the market value of the notes may decrease and Noteholders may receive substantially less than 100% of the issue price if they sell their notes prior to maturity. • Early Redemption of the Notes for taxation reasons: Under the terms of the Notes, the Issuer is also entitled to early redeem the Notes if the Issuer is required to deduct or withhold any taxes as more particularly set out in the Conditions relating to the Notes. In such circumstances, investors may receive an amount which is less than the principal amount of the Notes. • Reinvestment risk: If the Notes are early redeemed in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Notes, investors should note when he/she reinvests the proceeds into another product or instrument, the terms of such product or instrument may not be as favourable as those of the Notes. • Accounting Considerations: Special accounting considerations may apply to certain types of investors. Prospective investors are urged to consult with their own accounting advisors to determine implications of this investment. Morgan Stanley may distribute these notes at a price other than the issue price.

D. KEY INFORMATION ON THE OFFER OF NOTES TO THE PUBLIC AND THE ADMISSION TO TRADING ON A REGULATED MARKET
D.1	Under which conditions and timetable can I invest in the Notes?
Estimated Expenses charged to the investor by the Issuer or the offeror Not applicable. There are no estimated expenses charged to the investor by the Issuer.
D.2	Why has the prospectus been produced?
Reasons for offer, use and estimated net amount of proceeds

The estimated net proceeds of the issuance of the Notes are JPY 500,000,000. The Issuer intends to lend the net proceeds from the sale of the Notes to Morgan Stanley. Morgan Stanley intends to use the proceeds from such loan for general corporate purposes.

Conflicts of interest

Subject to potential conflicts between the investor and Morgan Stanley affiliates when Morgan Stanley and other affiliates or subsidiaries of Morgan Stanley carry out hedging activities or trades, each of the Issuer and Morgan Stanley and do not have interests material to the issue.
